...Looking to gain national experience as a Clinical Fellow in Nursing/Midwifery within Health Education England

If you have answered yes to all the above, then this may be the opportunity for you!

An opportunity has risen for a 12 month secondment within Health Education England (HEE) for a Clinical Fellow in Nursing/Midwifery (John Burdett Fellow).

You will be exposed to high level interaction and decision-making within HEE and develop an understanding of healthcare policy, education and training reform, leadership, management and delivery. You will gain an understanding of the delivery and formulation of end to end education and training. As the Clinical Fellow within HEE you will have the opportunity to work closely with a variety of HEE delivery teams across England and the new Commissioning for Quality programme of work. You will also be receiving training and professionally led mentoring coupled with opportunities to work across all of HEE.

The Clinical Fellow forms a part of a larger annual Fellow intake into HEE spanning both medical and non-medical professions.

As the Clinical Fellow - Nursing/Midwifery (John Burdett), responsibilities are expected to include:

- Gain knowledge of existing Nursing and Midwifery work programmes across Health and England incl. Shape of Caring.
- Contribute to the programmes of work taking the lead on agreed subjects
- Explore the opportunities for international partnerships to share best practice and raise the profile of nursing and care in England
- Develop the understanding of Clinical Academic Careers including the development of a spiral curriculum
- Contribute to and gain knowledge of nursing and care workforce supply and planning;
- Contribute to work programme to consistently described Advanced Practice across non-medical professions.
• Undertake Ad Hoc duties as advised

In return for your dedication, enthusiasm and commitment, you will receive:

• Salary commensurate with the existing service pay grade;
• Experience of working closely with the senior management team for HEE and be mentored by a range of senior staff including Director of Education and Quality.
• Opportunity to gain experience and expand leadership skills.
• Professional, challenging and proficient work environment combined with great learning experience!

This is an exciting opportunity and we are seeking a dynamic, self-starter, eager to adapt and learn with excellent communication, leadership and management skills.

APPLY NOW: If you are interested then please send your CV and a short statement covering the following points to charlotte.reyner@nhs.net [1]. The subject of the email MUST be Clinical Fellow - John Burdett

• Why you feel you are suited to this Fellowship
• What can you offer to the Fellowship and HEE
